

The 18th Annual Folly Beach Wahine Classic June 1 - 2, 2019 at the Washout on Folly Beach, SC

With over 100 competitors and countless more families, fans and followers, Folly Beach Wahine Classic (FBWC) is an outstanding marketing opportunity - last year, 102 women and girls competed. The FBWC continues to be one of the East Coast's premier surfing events and South Carolina's only all-female surf contest. Everyone who places goes home with cool trophies, prizes, and the experience of a lifetime!

Our Mission: The mission of the FBWC is to empower surfer girls of all ages by offering them a weekend of surf competition, girl power, camaraderie, and fun, while raising awareness for water-related non-profit organizations.

Sponsorship Benefits:

Your company name/logo on t-shirts and on our website, media coverage, tent and banner placement on the beach, recognition during PR announcements...all prioritized based on sponsorship level.

We love donations too! If you have the inventory, consider sharing small items like coupons, stickers, or samples for the welcome bags. This is a brilliant marketing opportunity, connecting you directly with the exact customers you're likely targeting. Larger donations (clothing, jewelry, sunglasses, hats, gift cards) are perfect for the prize bags given to the top competitors in each division. One size fits most items are best. We welcome big-ticket items for the raffle as well! There are many ways to connect your brand with hundreds of potential customers and be part of the FBWC joy that shines so brightly and continues to strengthen the soul of women's surfing.
